

GRAMMARIAN

STANLEY GRAMMAR SCHOOL

When the whistle blew for 'Sticks' Back in 1896

How the umpires could keep an eye on the ball when Grannie's skirts unsighted them is something we shall never know. Watching her granddaughters playing today in their free and easy get-up we can hardly believe that we supplied both outfits. But we've been school and sports club outfitters for over 70 years and the photographs in the family album prove it.

Isaac Walton's
GRAINGER STREET, NEWCASTLE-ON-TYNE

