

LIFE AFTER TANFIELD

NAME: Tracey Storey (nee Lumley)

PUPIL AT TANFIELD FROM 1982 TO 1987

MY LIFE AFTER LEAVING TANFIELD

Since leaving school I went on to study A levels at Derwentside college and spent one day a week volunteering at St Joseph's School in Stanley. I then went onto Newcastle University to study for a Bachelor of Education degree to enable me to become a teacher.

I took up my first post as a Year 2 class teacher at Chilton Infant school and after a number of years it became a primary school where I spent the vast majority of my career teaching across the different year groups.

My career took a change in 2011 when I was lucky enough to become a Deputy head at East Stanley school and am still teaching there today. It is definitely the career for me.

During my time at Tanfield I met my husband and we were married in 1994. We began our family in 1997 where we were blessed with a son Benjamin. He also attended Tanfield school.

I have lots of happy memories of my time at Tanfield school from the staff who taught me to the different trips as well as my time as part of the Christian singers.
